The exact day has not yet been determined upon, but will be fixed and announced in due time.

W. C. Troy, Esq., has been nominated as the Conservative candidate for Senator from the district composed of the counties of Cumberland and Harnett. Mr. Troy made a bright record as a member of the Senate of the last General Assembly, and his nomination by the Conservatives of the new district is a compliment as well deserved as it is wisely bestowed. His election is certain.

The Hickory Tavern Eaglesays: We learn from unquestionable authority, that a leading radical at this place, on last Saturday or Monday, stated that $24,000 had been appropriated for carrying the election in this Congressional District-that they were going to charter all the trains running to Charlotte soon, having a big barbecue, and a social time generally with their colored friends. They are determined to buy up every voter they can.

The Conservatives of this district will regret to learn that Col. N. A. McLean has finally concluded to decline the nomination so unanimously tendered to him by the Fair Bluff Convention, as the candidate of the Conservative party for the Senate.

It now becomes the duty of the Chairman of the District Convention, under resolution adopted at Fair Bluff, to reassemble the Convention for the purpose of filling the vacancy by a new nomination.—

The appaling idea flashed across his mind that the shirt which had done hin such good service-which had clung to him during the toilsome fourney across 2,000 miles of mountain, plain and desert -was not exactly the thing to appear in when one wished to intensify an already good impression. It certainly wouldn't be the clean thing, he said to himselfit wouldn't be justice to the shirt. So he resolved to change it. But how The car contained several lady passengers, and they watched everything that was going on around them with an assidnity that did honor to the sex. "Ah, ha! str-r-rategy, my boy!" said this resolute young man unto himself. " The tunnel-we are approaching the tunnel. I can do the deed in the long tunnel just beyond Sunol;" and with a heavy smile on his manly features, he gracefully lifted his carpet-bag from the floor, unlocked it, and drew forth a snowy shirt with nice frilled bosom. Then from another recess drew he a little packet, containing a pair of handsome sleeve-buttons and a set of studs, which were quickly adjusted in their proper places. Casting a careful glance from from the tunnel where the metamorphosis | manity. was to take place, and so he turned his back upon the other passengers and began to loosen sundry buttons-in short, prej ared to shuck himself. Presently the eventful moment came. The iron horse plunged into the nark recesses of the tunnel, and the car was shrouded in impenetrable darkness. Presently a ray of light gleamed in fautastic shapes along the rugged wall of the tunnel, and by its faint glimmer a struggling figure was discernible in the direction of the young man's seat.
